Introducing MONEY "WERKS" FINANCIAL SOLUTIONS

Great News!!! Faith Community United Credit Union has been awarded a grant to assist the community in Financial Literacy. Students and parents throughout the county can now be offered literacy classes and budgeting projects to help enhance their knowledge on financial planning. The Financial Literacy Team at Faith connect with local schools and other organizations to open youth savings accounts and teach the students the importance of higher education, and financial literacy.

WE WANT TO SHOW YOU HOW MONEY "WERKS"!

Cleveland Neighborhood Progress partners with Faith Community

Cleveland Neighborhood Progress along with Walter Morris of Community Financial Centers will offer free personal financial planning and management, credit building, debt management and other financial services. Mr. Morris has over 20 years of experience in finance. Your meetings will be completely confidential.
